Nashville's House Divided

WSIX/Nashville morning fixture Gerry House may have announced his impending retirement last week (Breaking News 9/3), but the time for retirement speeches is still three months off. What can't wait, however, is the market assessment, planning and leg work stations are already doing to prepare for a post-House morning drive. Country Aircheck contacted several locally interested execs for their thoughts and, depending on their closeness to the situation, some were more circumspect than others. Certainly though, these are issues that affect any market that sees an iconic personality walk away.

"Gerry transcended formats, which will cause come to go wildly in flux come December," says Cumulus SVP/Programming Jan Jeffries, whose WSM-FM (The Wolf) hopes to benefit. "Serendipity comes to mind with Gerry leaving the air as we recently completed building our new morning show which, without us knowing, turned out to be perfect timing. We wish Gerry much happiness in his new ventures and thank him for widening the lane for morning radio in Nashville."

Jan Jeffries

While Jeffries was understandably guarded in his comments, other Nashville Country radio execs declined to participate at all. Others were more forthcoming. "The effect Gerry's departure will have on morning radio really depends on the different segments of his audience and why they actually tune-in to him each morning," says Tuned In Broadcasting's Triple A WRLT-FM GM Fred Buc. "Hard-core Country fans who want to hear more music will no doubt gravitate to one of the other two stations."

PMG To Consult KKGO

Mt. Wilson's KKGO/Los Angeles has inked a programming consulting agreement with LA-based Pollack Media Group Chairman/CEO Jeff Pollack. Go Country owner Saul Levine noted, "My association with Jeff goes back decades since his work with our radio projects in Honolulu. Jeff understands country music and its role in the unique L.A. market." Pollack adds, "(We're) excited to work with Saul, [Dir./Programming] Tonya Campos and everyone at Mt. Wilson to help maximize KKGO's potential audience. Through our years of work with CMT, we're well aware of the impact that country music has had

Promotion Of The Week

If the folks at Tyler Media's KJKE/Oklahoma City have their way, the city's main arena will soon be named the "Jake FM Center." Home to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, the venue's naming rights lease with Ford isn't being renewed. Enter some radio types whose eyes are waaaay bigger than their checkbooks. The upshot? A campaign to raise $9 million. "Jake is currently asking each listener and their family and friends to donate $20.00 each,"

PD Kevin Christopher says.

"We're being realistic that it's going to take all of our listeners as well as our competitor's and even some funding help from local industry to make this happen." KJKE has promised to donate all money collected to the Thunder's NBA Cares charity, not that it couldn't happen. "Jake isn't about Corporate," Christopher promised the community. "He wants to bring the best country concerts, rodeo and monster truck events, demolition derbies, X-games and even wedding receptions and reunions." The station even plans to make the arena jumbotron available for some enormous X-Box and Wii gaming.

WMN Breaks Camp

Sixteen years ago an aspiring young artist and songwriter wrote and recorded a record for Warner/Reprise that was ultimately shelved. We know him now as successful songwriter Shawn Camp ("Two Pina Coladas," "River Of Love"), but Warner Music Nashville President/CEO John Esposito knows him as the guy whose great record he just dusted off and is about to release. Aptly titled 1994, the album lands Sept. 28 alongside the re-release of Camp's self-titled debut.

MY TUNES: MUSIC THAT SHAPED MY LIFE

Jim Pearson

KTOM/Monterey MD/morning host Jim Pearson discusses his most important songs, artists or concerts:

1. U2, Elevation Tour: This was right after the tragedy on 9/11. It was a spiritual experience I will never forget. The best $800 I ever spent!

2. Charlie Daniels/The Devil Went Down To Georgia: I was 11 years old when I first heard this epic song. I grew up on country music, but this was different. How do they get away with the fiddle so out of tune? I don't know, but it worked.

3. Joe Satriani, Flying in a Blue Dream Tour, 1991: It was the first concert I ever saw live. I love instrumental music. Joe and his band were unreal. I wore out that cassette and bought another one when it died.

4. It Might Get Loud: This documentary is a two-hour conversation with Led Zeppelin's Jimmy Page, White Stripes' Jack White and U2's the Edge. It's all about guitars, music and what shaped their art. I highly recommend it for any music lover.

5. Lynyrd Skynyrd & The Road Hammers: The Hammers are really amazing live and really gave Skynyrd a run for their money. I was hanging side stage when Skynyrd's Billy Powell (now since passed on) leaned over to me and said, "These guys f*&%in' rock!" Yes, they do Billy. Yes, they do.

• A highly regarded song or album you've never heard: This is going to sound sacrilegious, but I have never heard an entire Beatles album. Only the stuff I have heard on radio and in movies. Don't own one, don't care to. Am I missing something here?

• An "important" piece of music you just don't get: I love all kinds of music, but I just don't get James Taylor. This may sound odd, maybe a little weird, I know, but just the sound of him singing, his music or hearing the name James Taylor ticks me off!

• An album you played or listened to incessantly: I love Spyro Gyra's Breakout album. I love the funk/R&B/feel they have. Good stuff. Also, Jamey Johnson's That Lonesome Song album is phenomenal. His honesty and insight are pretty cool. I can't wait to hear his new stuff.

• One obscure or non-country song everyone should listen to right now: "Steady As She Goes" by the Raconteurs' and everything on the Foo Fighters' album Echoes, Silence, Patience and Grace.

Star Singers & Ball Slingers

Football fever has hit Music City with Taylor Swift, Faith Hill, John Rich and Kenny Chesney leading the charge into the 2010 season.

- After being spotted at this past weekend's Notre Dame game with her brother and ND student Austin, Swift will headline the NFL Opening Kickoff 2010 with the Dave Matthews Band in New Orleans

Thursday (9/9) at 7:30pm ET on NBC-TV and the NFL Network.

- Once again the voice of NBC-TV's Sunday Night Football, Hill will be making her NFL game day predictions head-to-head sports writers at The Tennessean. Fans are encouraged to out-pick Hill online for a chance to win VIP passes to the Dec. 19 Tennessee Titans game through the Pigskin Pick 'Em contest here.

- According to The Tennessean, Rich commissioned the addition of Vanderbilt University football coach Robbie Caldwell to a football mural near the school's Nashville campus after a dispute between the stadium and the building owner left the prior coach on the landmark mural.

- Chesney's football doc Boys Of Fall will re-air Sept. 27 on ESPN2.

Radio News

- Clear Channel's Classic Country WWLG/Atlanta is now simulcasting the cluster's Rhythmic Top 40 WWVA. The station's most recent 6+ ratings in PPM were a 0.4, ranking tied for 28th, with 123,200 listeners (ranking 29th).

- Beacon Broadcasting's WRTK/Youngstown, OH has flipped to Classic Country as 1540 The Farm.

Chart Chat

Congrats to Billy Currington, Royce Risser, Damon Moberly and the entire Mercury crew on the singer's fifth No. 1 with Country Aircheck/Mediabase. "Pretty Good At Drinkin' Beer" is Currington's fourth-consecutive chart topper following "That's How Country Boys Roll," "People Are Crazy" and "Don't."

• WSIX/Nashville morning personality Gerry House broke the news to his legions of Music City listeners that The House Foundation would be coming to an end on Dec. 15. (Breaking News 9/3).

House Divided

"Listeners who tend to venture beyond the center lane of mainstream Country (like Americana fans) may shift over to WSM-AM or even sample my station, Lightning 100," Buc says.

"If they tune-in for the zoo-type morning chatter, then they'll seek out other notable personalities with whom they can connect with each day. Morning radio reeks of jock 'personality' and entertainment, and there are plenty of other offerings available regardless of the station's music format. Of course, there is always the segment of the station's P-1 followers who will stay and accept whatever WSIX throws at them next.

"Stations who have syndicated morning shows don't really have a lot of options to try and capture Gerry's audience. Their programming, format clocks and long-distance personalities are all locked-in. The other Country stations with local morning shows should 'wish Gerry well in his future' and find ways to welcome his audience. This could be accomplished using a combination of on-air and online promotion with incentives for new members who join their station VIP clubs."

House's audience wasn't comprised solely of Country P1s, however. "When someone with three decades of tenure becomes part of the fabric of the city, it's easy to take for granted the contributions that great local radio personalities can make ... until they're gone," says South Central Communications VP/GM Dennis Gwiazdon, who oversees AC WJXA and Adult Hits WCJK.

"Gerry is one of those iconic personalities who often transcends formats. Case in point: Mix 92.9 (WJXA) has always shared a considerable amount of audience with WSIX and morning drive is certainly no exception. How his absence will affect our strategies going forward is relatively immaterial. As I'm sure you know, the Mix Morning Show with Kim, Anna and Clint has topped Gerry's show in Arbitron quite often and our lead over The House Foundation is even more pronounced in the early stages of PPM. Even our jockless 96.3 JACK-fm (WCJK) attracts more listeners in mornings than many other personality-oriented morning shows, WSIX included.

"Will we accept a few more ears now that he's leaving? You bet! But there is nothing that we'll do differently to attract them; listeners have always voted with their fingers based on what they like and don't like and that will always be the case.

"This change will open doors for WSIX's Country competitors more than anyone else. With three FM stations battling it out for Country prominence, what happens after December 15 is anyone's guess. One could surmise, based on what's happening in the PPM world to a lot of talkative morning shows on music-based formats, that we might hear more music in morning drive on WSIX."

"This is a key opportunity for the remaining local morning shows to put their own stamp on Nashville. Based on what I'm seeing at the moment, I kind of like our chances, if you don't mind my saying so."

Of course, the stations that have competed with House aren't the only ones with an opportunity. "I'm not privy as to what [Clear Channel]'s plan might be after December, but if I were the WSIX PD, I'd look for another strong local or format personality," Buc says. Perhaps hire Rick Marino or Bill Cody away from across the street, or put a local country know-it-all insider on like Lon or even Brad Schmitt. There are, of course, other former strong Country radio personalities in the market like Dale Turner, Carl P., Ed Salamon and others. Another option: put on a high-profile artist with name recognition who's not as busy anymore like Vince Gill, Randy Travis, etc. It worked for Alice Cooper!"

SERVE LISTENERS, BUILD YOUR DATABASE WITH COUNTRY AIRCHECK'S ARTIST NEWS EMAIL

"Love the newsletter! It's just another way to connect with our audience by delivering interesting and compelling content to their in-box completely customized with our station logo. It was always something I wanted to do, but never had the time or manpower to get it done. This is so easy!" -Kerry Wolfe, WMIL/Milwaukee PD

"It's our very own version of Entertainment Tonight and Access Hollywood for country. Our KMPS All Access members feel privileged to be in the know every week. We have had a great response!"
-Becky Brenner, KMPS/Seattle PD

"The open rates are the highest percentage we have of any of our interactive items." -Mike Brophey, WKLB/Boston PD
