Promotions: Fun Fall Festivities

On the off chance you haven't planned your fall promotions, or the even more remote possibility you're already looking to winter, we've got some ideas for you. More accurately, you have some ideas for you. A completely unscientific scanning of station newsletters and websites turned up several interesting and creative promotions now underway at Country radio:

WIVK/Knoxville is gearing up for football season by offering two exclusive songs for download. "Swamp Stomp" and "Lane Train" celebrate the Univ. of Tennessee Volunteers. Other pigskin promotions include having judges on campus three hours before each home game searching for the WIVK/Food City "Tailgater of the Game" to win a $500 food card and chance to win a trip for 10 to the SEC championship game in Atlanta.

HOLIDAY REPORTING NOTE/DEADLINE

The Country Aircheck offices will be closed next Monday in observance of the Labor Day holiday. The reporting deadlines for all Country Aircheck/Mediabase 24/7 reporters will be extended to Tuesday, Sept. 8 at 3pm ET/Noon PT.

Also, don't forget the deadline for 2010 Country Music DJ and Radio Hall of Fame submissions is Sept. 18. Applications can be found here. Contact info for the nominee or next of kin must be included.

33 stations feeling the Love!

"Been doing radio for 25 years now...every now and then a voice will come along and grab your attention. I remember these moments for Faith, Martina, Reba and others. Now here's another to add to the list. Mallary's voice has conviction and emotion...two essentials to be a real country singer."

MY TUNES: MUSIC THAT SHAPED MY LIFE

Bev Rainey

KBQI/Albuquerque MD/middayer Bev Rainey discusses her most important songs, artists or concerts:

1) Judas Priest, Queensryche, Iron Maiden, Journal Pavilion in Albuquerque: Three "Metal Gods" that could hold their own on an opera stage

2) Alison Krauss/Down To The River To Pray: Her music is amazing, and this simple song can reset my day.

3) Nine Inch Nails, Journal Pavilion in Albuquerque: Trent Reznor's album production is unreal. My jaw was on the ground watching him pull it all off live on stage.

4) Richard Marx, Mud Island Amphitheater: My first concert. I don't remember the performance, but will never forget falling in love with the sound, lights and crowd.

5) John Mellencamp, Life, Death, Love, and Freedom: I know I'll be listening to this album for a long time, especially tracks 1, 4, and 9. He's still got it!

• A highly regarded song or album you've never heard: Anything by Frank Sinatra. You have to tell me it's him I'm listening to, or I'd have no idea.

• An "important" piece of music you just don't get: The Beatles. Everyone touts how amazing they were, and I just can't connect.

• An album you played or listened to incessantly: Michael Jackson's Thriller. I was obsessed with it when I was little and still know every word. I'll admit I've still got the collector's cards that came with the bubble gum, too!

• One obscure or non-country song everyone should listen to right now: Tool's frontman Maynard has a side solo project, Puscifer. Check out "The Mission" featuring supermodel/actress/singer Milla Jovovich ... it's bumpin'!

turn the signature barn backdrop pink. Mention "OPRY PINK" when ordering tickets via telephone or online and $5 from the sale will benefit Women Rock for the Cure and Susan G. ## Artist News

Kenny Chesney and Miranda Lambert's band members celebrated Lady Antebellum's last night on the Sun City Carnival tour Sunday (8/30) by crashing their performance.

Kenny Chesney

Chesney filmed the prank as his crew and band members in full "Thriller" costumes performed the zombie dance during "Love Don't Live Here." Lambert's band dusted Lady A's drumheads with baby powder, taped Dave Haywood's keyboard keys down and Chesney's drummer removed all the drum set's cymbals during the trio's closing song.
