People Meter Pumps Up Country

Programmers in four markets – Atlanta, Dallas, Detroit and Washington DC – received pre-currency PPM data from Arbitron for the very first time last week. And, while we're prohibited from providing actual shares and cume figures for pre-currency PPM data, we went through the numbers to provide a broad overview of what happened with PPM in those four markets. (For a complete look at the Oct. PPM ratings for seven markets where PPM is currency, go here.)

It's important to point out that the October 2008 PPM pre-currency figures are the first PPM results for those markets, so there are no previous month comparisons. And, it's not apples-to-apples comparisons to judge PPM results side-by-side with the Summer diary-based book in these markets. However, it is interesting to see the different metrics that PPM brings to the table vs. the diary. It's also enlightening to see how Country is faring under the glare of the new methodology.

It's also worth pointing out that October would seem to be a pretty tough month for Country in a PPM world. PPM results have seemed to be far more sensitive to marketplace machinations, and there was no shortage of outside forces during this period, what with baseball playoffs and the election.

Atlanta: Overall, Country fared a lot better with PPM than it did in the Summer 2008 diary-based report. While the overall Country cume didn't double as we've seen in other new PPM markets, it did increase by almost 70% over Summer 2008. (continued on page 5)

Market Sucks $4.8B From Sirius

"We think the environment sucks," said Sirius XM CEO Mel Karmazin about the auto industry on a conference call with analysts after writing down $4.88 billion of goodwill in connection with Sirius' acquisition of XM this July. "It is not like we're doing something wrong. It is that, unfortunately, we do not have a whole lot of control over what cars are getting sold." Company stock, which settled at 27 cents today, has cratered since the takeover on worries about subscriber growth and $1 billion in debt, coming due in '09, that Karmazin is working to refinance.

- 1. Helen Reddy, "You And Me Against The World": My mom used to sing this to me when I was little. Not an amazing song lyrically or musically, but certainly amazing to me!
 - 2. Anne Murray, "Can I Have This Dance": I'm such a girl! Some guy is so going to play this for me someday. Probably the reason I'm still single - that's a lot of pressure to put on a guy.
 - 3. Matthew Wilder, "Break My Stride": That's the song in my head. Gets me moving. Such an '80s song, but a classic.
 - 4. Great Divide, "Pour Me a Vacation": We played this for a summer at WWYZ/Hartford and it's the most played song on my iPod. Grab a cocktail, grab some friends and feel this song.
 - 5. Garth Brooks, Central Park: I remember standing in the middle of all those people doing a call in and the jock on the air asked me what it was like. All I said was, "Electric. Everyone in Manhattan is a country music fan today."
- A highly regarded song or album you've never heard: Anything by The Who.
 - An "important" piece of music you just don't get: Coldplay. Extremely talented band. Can't last through one song.

Chart Chat

Hearty congrats to Taylor Swift, Big Machine President Scott Borchetta, VP/Promotion Jack Purcell and the entire Big Machine team (engine?) on this week's No. 1 with “Love Story.” The song is the Swift group's third chart-topper of the year, joining “Should Have Said No,” which rang the bell Aug. 18, and “Our Song,” which peaked Jan. 7. In between, Swift scored the top 5 hit “Picture To Burn.”

This most recent No. 1 comes, of course, on the eve of release (11/11) for Swift's second album, profiled in our Check Out section. The only person happier than Big Machine tonight might be 10-year-old Emma Aly, who got her pre-ordered copy of Fearless in the mail a day early.

The format also tacked on almost two-and-a-half extra shares of Country, with most of the increase going to Citadel's WKHX. Clear Channel's WUBL PPM 12+ share was just above its summer book.

WKHX's PPM 12+ share gain vaulted it into fourth place; the summer book gave WKHX a 3.4 and an 11th rank. KIX also ranked fourth 25-54 in PPM; it ranked 10th last summer. WUBL ranked 21st in 12+ PPM shares vs. 19th in the summer. 25-54, it ranked 21st in both PPM and in the Summer '08 sweep.

Dallas: PPM results were eye-popping in the Big D. The Country cume delivered by Cumulus' KPLX (The Wolf) and Citadel's KSCS more than doubled when compared to the Summer '08 book, with KPLX breaking well above the one million mark. In fact, if The Wolf's cume holds at this level into next month's currency phase, it will become the most listened-to Country station in the USA. That blockbuster cume helped propel KPLX into a tie for first 12+ and a second place finish 25-54. The summer book put The Wolf in a tie for eighth 12+ and in 13th, 25-54.

PPM numbers for Citadel's KSCS place it eighth 12+ and in a tie for fourth, 25-54. The summer book had it 15th 12+ and 14th 25-54.

Detroit: Both CBS Radio's WYCD and Clear Channel's WDTW got the now seemingly requisite cume bumps from PPM, although not quite double the cume garnered by the pair in the Summer '08 Arbitron. Both stations also enjoyed an increase in shares over the summer book. The 25-54 ranks were relatively flat, with WYCD showing eighth in the summer and in the Oct. PPM, while WDTW was 19th last summer and 17th in the PPM.

Washington, DC: The good news is that the 12+ cume for Clear Channel's WMZQ was up 70% over Summer 2008. The bad news is that it ranks 15th 12+ in PPM, compared to ninth last summer. 25-54, WMZQ ranked 16th in PPM vs. eighth last summer.

BELONGS TO YOU

"NUMBER ONE!!! I think that is all I have to say. This song is better than 'Moments'. The girls in the office were crying when they heard this song. If this song doesn't go number one then country radio is in trouble!"

Justin Tyler – WWGR / Ft. Myers

"'Belongs To You' will be Emerson Drive's 'AMAZED'... I love these guys (in a manly way!) and think this is their career song."

Rich Summers – KIZN / Boise

"'Belongs to You' is the biggest song of '08, if not '09...better than 'I Swear'!"

Brian Hatfield – WKSF / Asheville

"Maybe the single greatest song you have ever sent me...the kind of song that can define an act's career. It's an add whenever you want it...or earlier!!"

Brian Jennings – WGAR / Cleveland

"Brad has one of the best voices in Nashville; ok I'll say North America! Such a rich, full sound. Aching love song. Love it!"

Gwen Foster – KMLE / Phoenix

"Another monster ballad from the group that brought us 'Moments'. Brad says the words that every woman wants to hear, but most guys can't pull off. I can't wait to play this one for my wife. It just might be my night!"

Kerry Wolfe – WMIL / Milwaukee

"Simply put...AWESOME song!!!"

Travis Daily – WFUS / Tampa

"As for the Emerson Drive, I love it...Love them, and this is a great song!"
