Chart Chat

Congrats to all the folks at Lyric Street, Turner-Nichols management and the entire Rascal Flatts organization on the band's eighth No. 1, "Stand." It's the third No. 1 single – joining "My Wish" and "What Hurts The Most" – from their "Me And My Gang" CD, which has sold more than four million units since its April 2006 release. The trio's next album is set for a Sept. 25, 2007 release.

By the way, just in case you haven't been keeping up with the Pop charts, the Flatts' "What Hurts The Most" is No. 4 on this week's Mediabase AC chart. The former No. 1 AC hit – which of course spent four weeks at No. 1 on top of the Country Aircheck/Mediabase chart – actually grew from No. 5 to No. 4 with a bullet in this, its 49th week on the AC chart!

More On Music's Post VT Role

The Wilkinsons' song "Nobody Died" has struck a poignant chord with radio listeners following the Virginia Tech tragedy. Written by Tony Hazelton after the Columbine tragedy and recorded by the Canadian trio for an RCA/Nashville album that was never released, the song was re-recorded by the band following the Amish school tragedy last October. Featured on their new album Home, the song's video was shot as planned two days after the Tech massacre and carries an anti-bullying message. The syndicated Moby in the Morning show played it every day last week to tremendous response, and the song has been the subject of a few newspaper articles as well. Email moby@mobyinthemorning.com for a copy.

This week's releases include:

Miranda Lambert Crazy Ex-Girlfriend (Columbia)

The sophomore album from the Nashville Star alumna contains plenty of the “Girl Power” anthems Lambert is famous for (“Gunpowder & Lead,” “Crazy Ex-Girlfriend”) but also features tracks that show off her sensitive side (“Love Letters,” “Desperation,” “Down”). She nabs solo writing credit on three tracks and co-writing credit on five others. Patty Griffin and Gillian Welch each contributed a song to the project.

Blake Shelton Pure BS (Warner Bros.)

Shelton's fourth album stays true to his traditional country roots with cheating songs (“She Can't Get That”), drinking songs (“The More I Drink”) and even an ode to rural life featuring cameos from John Anderson and George Jones (“The Last Country Song”). Paul Worley produced three cuts and Bobby Braddock and Brent Rowan each produced four.

Upcoming releases:

May 15 John Anderson Easy Money (Warner Bros./Raybaw)
Little Texas The Very Best Of Little Texas Live And Loud (Montage)
Jason Meadows 100% Cowboy (Baccerstick/CO5)
Gretchen Wilson One Of The Boys (Columbia)

May 22 Bobby Pinson Songs For Somebody (Cash Daddy)

Toby Keith's Friends Pony Up

It was a typical weekend in Oklahoma City – a few friends gettin' together for a coupla beers and some music on Friday night and a little golf on Saturday. But when you're the Big Dog Daddy, well, those friends include Oklahoma football coach Bob Stoops, former Dallas Cowboy's head coach and former OU coach Barry Switzer, Heisman Trophy winners Steve Owens and Billy Simms and Oklahoma Governor Brad Henry. They were among the few hundred friends who were part of the fourth annual "Toby Keith & Friends Golf Classic" held last weekend to benefit Ally's House. While the final figures aren't in yet, this weekend's donations will add greatly to the $1.1 million raised in the first three years.

How can I be sure? Well, I watched with amazement at the pairing party's auction when one group of golfers paid $31,000 to have Toby play in their group. Then, Toby auctioned a dinner for 20 at his I Love This Bar & Grill. As things progressed, he added Stoops, Switzer and even the Governor to the dinner – and then said he'd have everyone over to his house. The end result was two people each spending $30k to join the party. The live and silent auctions included dream vacations, Dallas Cowboys football tickets and a team-signed football, huge OU packages and a number of items signed by Garth Brooks, Sammy Hagar, Bob Seger and a host of country artists. Restless Heart performed and sounded better than ever.

Not much to write about Saturday's golf game, which was severely affected by Friday night and the golf-cart mounted margarita machines that seemed to show up every third hole. It was ugly. The coolest thing was 20 players taking a swing from 112 yards – with the shot closest to the pin winning a gorgeous Ford truck loaded with gifts from the tourney's sponsors. Great weekend, great cause. –L.H.
