UMG Takes Turkey Bowl XV; Capitol Gobbles Trophy

The 15th Annual Turkey Bowl was played Saturday in Nashville, with UMG prevailing for the 12th year of the music business football festival. Clad in pink jerseys -- insert own joke here -- UMG bested EMI Christian Music Group 21-8 in the championship game.

In the first round, EMI Christian Music Group beat SESAC, Capitol edged Sony BMG (7-6), UMG beat SOLID (24-2) and William Morris got a bye. To get into the finals, EMICMG beat Capitol (26-20) and UMG defeated William Morris (28-6).

UMG tour press specialist Kelly Russell was named MVP after dominating from her defensive tackle position. She registered over 10 sacks in the tourney, including big plays during a couple goal-line stands in the final game.

UMG suffered two key injuries: UMG A&R staffer Brian Wright broke his clavicle and MCA VP/Promotion Royce Risser suffered torn rib cartilage. Whined Risser on Monday, "If I sneeze I pass out from pain. That simple. I must not sneeze!"

Hot Air: The intense rivalry ratcheted up another notch when the Turkey Bowl trophy was unavailable for the traditional post-game presentation. Acting on a tip, Country Aircheck deployed its Wi-Fi scanners and intercepted an intra-office email containing this photo (right) of Capitol staffers posing with the
