ADD/COVERT NOW!

To My Country Radio Fam!

The biggest news to date in my career.
My first #1. It's been almost 30 yrs
Since the last Canadian made #1 in the US.
I want to say I am beyond grateful.
I moved to Nashville in 2010 with a dream of writing songs and maybe hearing some of my own on the radio someday.
Today it's the most played song!

Big thank you to all the fans and family at Radio. Look forward to a long career together.

Love Y'all,

Single Again #1

Unrated & Undaunted

Talk of radio stations' success frequently turns to ratings performance – as evidenced by the monthly scoreboards of PPM and CDM markets on pages 14 and 15. However, a majority of the more than 2,000 Country radio stations in the US serve areas that are not measured markets.

Country Aircheck caught up with two such outlets to see how they are surviving – and thriving – without ratings.

Hoosier How-To: In Richmond, IN, Brewer GM Amy Dillon is now in the 10th year of her second tour with the three-station cluster, which includes Country WQLK and Classic Country WQLK-HD3. "We are in the middle of Indy, Cincinnati and Dayton, so you can catch a good concert within an hour drive most any direction," explains Dillon. "We're small market, but we get the luxury of having some very good radio neighbors."

Dillon says that geography gives her cluster a selling advantage. "We don't really have a strong newspaper here, and there's no TV. We get Indy, Cincy and Dayton, depending on what service you subscribe to. There's a good billboard company in town, which is always a nice companion to radio, but as far as the dollars go for local marketing, it's us."

"I started here in '96 as a salesperson, then left for a few years and worked in Indy, Muncie and Terre Haute," says the Richmond native. "I worked for some companies that really do it right, and I worked for a couple that helped coach me how not to do things. The culture here has always been 'work hard, play hard and have a good time.'"

The Brewer cluster counts 17 full-time and five part-time employees. "We're live with a morning duo, middays and afternoons are local," she says. "We've got full time promotions and digital manager that contributes wholeheartedly."

Q2 PPM Drivetime Leaders

Following the release of the June Nielsen PPM monthlies, Country Aircheck has analyzed Q2 numbers to determine the stations with leading shares and cumes in drivetimes. Quarterly averages eliminate the wobbles that can be present at a daypart level on a month-to-month basis. All figures are Persons 6+.

Mornings: New faces lead mornings in both cume and share. For the first time, WUSN/Chicago's Melissa McGurren and Austin

MY TUNES

Triple Tigers' Scotty McCreery shares five songs you'll hear on SiriusXM's Prime Country with Scotty McCreery (ch. 58):

1. Ronnie Milsap, "Smoky Mountain Rain." Ronnie has always been a hero of mine. Being from North Carolina and becoming a country music superstar, he was such an inspiration. One of the first concerts I ever went to was Ronnie at Johnston Community College back home. "Smoky Mountain Rain" has been a staple in my household basically my whole life.

2. John Anderson, "Seminole Wind." When I was growing up, we were still very much into burning CDs with our favorite songs. I would say the first time I ever programmed a Prime Country-style playlist was when I created a CD with my friend Kyle in high school Spanish class. Instead of paying attention to class like we should have been, we created a list of our favorite country songs, and rushed home to make that CD. "Seminole Wind" was one of the first songs we both agreed on. I still have that CD in my truck.

3. Garth Brooks, "Callin' Baton Rouge." I grew up jamming to Garth Brooks. I would play all of his songs on guitar on the edge of my bed at 2-3am. It's crazy to me that we have become friends over the years, and that he would personally invite me to become a member of the Grand Ole Opry. I chose "Callin' Baton Rouge" for my in-laws who are all from Houma, LA and went to LSU. I've attended a couple games at Tiger Stadium, and I truly have never experienced anything like when they play this song before the game starts. You can feel the stadium shake.

4. Randy Travis, "On The Other Hand." Randy is another hero of mine and it has been awesome getting to know him and his wife Mary over the years. Storms Of Life is right up there with my favorite country albums of all time, and I could have picked any number of songs off that record for my first Prime Country show. This song has long been one of my favorites just because of how well written it is, top to bottom.

5. Patty Loveless, "I Try To Think About Elvis." Patty has one of my favorite voices in all of country music. She has one of those voices you don't just listen to, but you feel. Pair that with a song title that mentions my biggest influence growing up, Elvis Presley, and you can imagine I wore this song out. This was a must-have on my first Prime Country show.

Huff have the largest cume in morning drive with 348,700, an increase of 6,600 from last quarter when they finished second. A 45,900 bump lifts KSCS/Dallas' Mark "Hawkeye" Louis and Michelle Rodriguez from third to second with 323,400. Q1's first place finisher, KKBQ/Houston's Q Morning Show, slips to third as the only other morning show to top the 300k mark.

In terms of share, it's WWYZ/Hartford's Damon Scott and Amanda Jo Parker topping the list for the first time, thanks to a jump from a 5.9 to an 8.2. They are a full share ahead of the second-place finishers, fellow New Englanders Courtney Kelley and Brendan Sharp of WCTK/Providence. A 2.3 share increase lands KSOP/Salt Lake City's Dave Gunderson and Deb Turpin in third place, while last quarter's leader, WCOL/Columbus' Wakeup Call with Zuko & Kayla slides to eighth this quarter.

Afternoons: WUSN takes both the cume categories, as Scotty Kay leads in afternoons for the first time since Q3 last year; his 456,100 is the largest cume in any daypart for this quarter. An increase of 105,800 propels KPLX/Dallas' Jason Pullman from fifth to second with 436,400. KKBQ's Lauren "Lo" Sessions-Barker slips from first to third with 433,700. Finishing in fourth, KSCS' Al Farb makes it four stations with cumes above the 400k mark in PM drive.

WCTK's Kevin Lawrence has the largest share in afternoons this quarter and is the only person to hold on to first place from last quarter. He adds a share and finishes with a 10.3, nearly two shares above second place Joey Brooks of WWYZ, who himself jumps 2.5 shares. WUBE/Cincinnati's Dave Chandler rounds out the top three. See the 2025 Q1 leaders here; 2024 Q4 leaders here; Q3 here and Q2 here. —Chris Huff

Chart Chat

Congratulations to Josh Ross, Jimmy Rector, Damon Moberly, David Friedman, and the Mercury promotion team on taking Ross' debut American release "Single Again" to No. 1; it's his third to top the Canadian Country chart. Ross is the first solo Canadian male to reach No. 1 on the R&R/CA/MB chart since Paul Brandt led with "I Do" in October 1996. Songwriters are Joe Fox, Brad Rempel and Ross.

Kudos to Ryan Dokke and the Nashville Harbor crew on racking up 80 adds for Riley Green's "Don't Mind If I Do" featuring Ella Langley. This is Green's fifth release to top the CA/MB Add Board.

News & Notes

Ricky Skaggs has renovated and re-opened his Skaggs Place Studio on Rockland Rd. in Hendersonville, TN. Longtime Skaggs manager Charlotte Scott is GM, with Sean Badum serving as Studio Manager/Engineer. Skaggs has owned the space since 1998.

The Valory Music Co.'s Preston Cooper has been selected as iHeartCountry's latest "On The Verge" artist.

In response to flooding in Texas earlier this month, Charles Wesley Godwin donated 100% of profits from a 24-hour merch sale to the Kerr County Relief Fund.

We've got a full-time news director, and we do sports play-by-play. We've got five salespeople on the streets. We do so much whether it's promotional or community service, it takes all of us and we've been fortunate on the revenue side to be able to support that. We all do extra things because we can."

As far as ratings go, "We used to subscribe to the county-by-county report, but we just didn't get a lot of diaries to go by, so we set it aside." Dillon asks two questions when it comes to defining her stations' success: "Do you have positive cashflow and are you staffed? At the end of the day when you go home and say, 'it was a good day,' or when you get a comment from a listener saying thanks for supporting [an effort or cause], those are the things that keep me going. When you do fundraisers and help people, and they truly appreciate it, you really feel like they're an extension of your family. We're doing some good things here. This business can be hard some days, but those are the things that keep us going."

Small Market, High Tech: "We're licensed to Oklahoma, our biggest population center is in Texas, we straddle three DMAs and have 11 different competitors just in radio. There are two head-to-head 50,000-watt Country stations, a translator that's Classic Country, then another contemporary Country and another Classic just one county over. It's extremely crowded." That's Will Payne describing the dual market of Paris, TX and Hugo, OK, in which his third-generation family-owned Payne Media operates a dozen signals, including Country KITX. "Even though we have 100 different competitors, we have what they don't – boots on the ground."

Payne's cluster operates with a staff considerably smaller than Dillon's. "We're five full-time employees spread across our group of stations. We're all doing something for all the formats. We have two full-time on-air talent in mornings and afternoon and then voicetracking for the rest of the shifts."

"I love starting the day on the morning show, that's my passion," admits the multi-tasking Payne. "I started on the air when I was 12. At 17, my dad let me take over MD duties in Tulsa. I became a GM at age 21 and I never lost the desire for the programming side. At 9 o'clock I take up my GM duties, and I do some engineering. Just because we're a micro-market doesn't mean we have to sound like one. We have to make sure we have a great sounding product."

Payne takes advantage of technology to do research without a budget. "We've signed up with Xperi's DTS AutoStage, and we're able to see the listenership in newer vehicles that are Xperi dash enabled. The sample size isn't huge yet because there aren't that many radios here, but we can look at what happened yesterday and see if there's a bump. They also give us our top 25 songs based on if they listened all the way through. It's a great tool, and it also gives you heat maps, so you can see what your market really looks like. It's not just that circle anymore, it's blobs, it's highways; it gives you a different perspective on where you're trying to reach people."

Another technology Payne has been quick to embrace is AI. "It allows our staff of five to do the work of 50. We can use AI to create jingles for our customers in less than a day, so our commercials sound better. We don't have to use the same two voices over and over. AI can take a novice copywriter and make them sound better immediately. We're not going to lose our jobs to AI; we're going to lose them to people who know how to use AI better than we do."

"When we can make the cash register ring, that's the ultimate success," says Payne. "My family is celebrating 75 years in the business next year and we're looking for new and innovative ways to stay relevant for the next 50."

June 2025 PPM Scoreboard

The Nielsen PPM June 2025 Survey (5/29-6/25) saw Country slip 2.4% on a same-station basis from the May survey, to 352.8 total shares. That's off 3.1% from last June. Cume was down 4.4% from 25.6 million to 24.4m, however, that is a 6% increase from the previous year. WCTK/Providence reclaimed the largest share for the month, the fourth time this year it's led the format, while KPLX/Dallas took the cume crown for the first time since September 2023. Legend: A "+" indicates a Classic Country outlet; a "^" designates co-owned Country stations in the metro; a "t" indicates a tie; and a "*" indicates a station that is a recent subscriber for which ratings were not currently available. Ranks are among subscribers.

CHECK OUT

JULY 25Hudson Westbrook Texas Forever (River House/Warner/WAR)

Co-written entirely by Westbrook, his 17-song debut includes radio single "House Again," as well as previously released tracks "Funny Seeing You Here," "Texas Forever," "Mine Tomorrow," "Weatherman," "Sober" and "Dressed Down."

Tyler Childers Snipe Hunter (Hickman Holler/RCA)

Childers' Rick Rubin-produced seventh studio album features 13 songs, including "Nose On The Grindstone," officially out for the first time after years of being played on the road, and fan-favorites "Oneida" and "Cuttin' Teeth."

Cody Jinks In My Blood (Late August)The title track of Jinks' eleventh studio album features a collaboration with Charlie Starr of Blackberry Smoke. "I think that In My Blood, the song itself could be taken as the next chapter of Change The Game. We know what we did. We know where we've been. We know what we've done. In My Blood is why we keep doing it."
