Country's Elite Eight

Country has long been a star-driven format, but would it surprise you to learn that the eight most-played artists represent 27% of all airplay on Country stations? And it gets even more concentrated as you go down the list: The top 10 airplay acts represent 33% of all spins, the top 20 provide 55% and the top 30 comprise a whopping 69% of all Country airplay this year.

For those wondering how that compares to other formats:

- Hot AC: top 8, 25%; top 10, 29%; top 20 45%; and, top 30, 56%.
- AC: top 8, 17%; top 10, 20%; top 20, 33%; and, top 30, 42%.
- Top 40: top 8, 30%; top 10, 35%; top 20, 54%; and, top 30, 66%.

Toby Keith

Back to Country, our top 200 airplay artists amassed 9,848,219 spins from Jan. 1 to Aug. 18, 2012, according to Mediabase 24/7. Only eight artists have garnered more than 300,000 spins during that time frame, for a total of 2,683,083 plays. Kenny Chesney leads the pack with 405,699 plays, with Toby Keith placing second. Rounding out the Top 8 are the Zac Brown Band, Blake Shelton, Keith Urban, Tim McGraw, Jason Aldean and Rascal Flatts.

Tours: The Sun Goes Down

Kenny Chesney and Tim McGraw's Brothers Of The Sun 23-stadium summer tour came to a record-breaking conclusion over the weekend, playing two shows in front of 111,209 fans at Gillette Stadium in Foxboro, MA. Country Aircheck enlisted a pair of roving reporters for the tour's finale: WKLB/Boston's Ginny Rogers and WCTK/Providence's Bob Walker.

MERRY
GO 'ROUND

"Brothers Of The Sun is done," says Walker. "I live less than 20 miles from Gillette, and it took me three hours to get from my driveway to parking; an absolute madhouse. Kenny hit the stage on Saturday night (8/25) sporting an '83-Welkah' shirt, paying homage to the New England Patriots No. 83 Wes Welker and our New England accent. He also christened a new name for the regulars who come back to Gillette Stadium time and time again: 'No Shoes Nation.' Kenny announced he has now played nine times at Gillette, more than any other venue.

"Before the show, Tim McGraw and I were talking baseball and he told me he'd be wearing his father's (Tug McGraw) World Series ring onstage. That was the coolest thing I had ever heard from an artist.

But everyone agrees the most magical moment was Faith Hill joining Tim onstage during his set. They attempted to sing I Need You together, but Faith choked up and couldn't get the words out (video here). Gillette erupted in applause; throwing lots of love Faith's way."

Adds Rogers: "At the end of the song, Tim and Faith gave each other a nice, slow, big kiss for all the fans to see, which made the crowd go even crazier! She went to leave the stage, but Tim pulled her back and made her take a bow with him ... truly a special moment.

Good Clean Fun: The year is 1993, the occasion is CRS and a bathtub large enough for seven is the location for this shot, taken in Unistar's Presidential suite. Pictured (standing, l-r) are KZLA/Los Angeles' Norm Epstein, Arista's Steve Wariner and Lee Roy Parnell, Unistar's Ed Salamon and artist Mark O'Connor. Seated are Arista's Pam Tillis (l) and Unistar's Pam Green. Got vintage photos? Email them to pagethreepic@countryaircheck.com.

"Tim and his band, the Dance Hall Doctors, were all wearing t-shirts from different acts on the tour. Some had Grace Potter and the Nocturnals, including Tim; others had Kenny t-shirts and some had Jake Owen shirts. Very cool.

"Jake's set included the addition of Van Halen's 'Jump,' which we had heard at sound check the previous day. We didn't realize why he was sound-checking that song when it's not in his set ... well, it was on the last night.

"Grace Potter sang with Kenny on his next single 'El Cerrito Place.' They'd never sung it on any of the shows this tour. It was being recorded, too, and if it turns out well, then he'll use it for a future project.

Brian Kelley

Florida Georgia Line's Brian Kelley discusses his most influential songs, albums and concerts:

1. Garth Brooks' Double Live: As a kid, I would sit in the back of our van and listen to this album over and over. It's electric! You can truly feel the power of music in every song. I still crank it up on road trips.

2. John Michael Montgomery/ Sold (The Grundy County Auction Incident): I loved this song. I still know every word.

3. Alabama/ Reckless: This song is one of the best feel-good, fun songs released to this day. It doesn't get much better than this.

4. Kenny Chesney, Poets & Pirates Tour, Nashville, 2008: Kenny is the real deal. There was nothing like being in a packed stadium full of people singing along to amazing songs. There is a reason he's so successful. He is a true artist and performer.

5. Metallica/ Enter Sandman: From note one, it's on. This song rocks. I must admit that I blew a few speakers listening to this song back in the day.

• An "important" piece of music you just don't get: Honestly, I haven't got around to listening to much Bob Dylan, but hopefully I will one day.

• An album you played or listened to incessantly: Wiz Khalifa's Rolling Papers. Every song is great!

• One obscure or non-country song everyone should listen to right now: Matt Kearney's "Ships In The Night."

"After the song, Grace thanked Kenny for his friendship and said, 'Kenny I have a question for you,' to which Kenny quickly answered, 'I do' to laughter in the crowd. Then he said, 'Sorry, Matt' to Grace's fiancé (and drummer). Funny moment. Then Grace gave Kenny a signature Flying V guitar with a beach scene on the back, which she had painted."

Research: You Auto Know

Good news for car dealers: A new CMA 2012 Insiders Automobile Buying Habits Study indicates that nearly one in four (24%) of its sample of 13,000 online Country consumers aged 18+ intend to purchase a new vehicle in the next 12 months. That figure, extrapolated from online Country respondents (gathered from industry social networks and events) contrasts notably with figures from research firm Scarborough, whose estimates of potential car buyers among Country radio listeners is closer to 10%. The CMA study also indicates that 91% of those potential buyers will make their purchase through a dealership.

It's widely known that Country fans are brand-loyal, and that extends to cars and trucks, too, with CMA survey respondents saying their first consideration will be the manufacturer of the vehicle they currently drive. Other top brands cited include Chevrolet, Ford, Dodge and Toyota.

The results indicate that a growing consideration of compact and mid-size SUVs as these consumers contemplate their next new vehicle purchase. And half of these prospective buyers are looking at hybrid or electric alternatives, especially the Ford and Chevrolet brands. The report says the three most critical buying criteria are, in order, safety, gas mileage and reliability.

Beer, Buns & Baseball

Not necessarily in that order, but that's the general idea Wednesday (8/29) as Country Aircheck sponsors the Nashville Sounds' final Music Industry Wednesday. The standing buy-one-ticket-get-one-free deal applies, but your fleet-fingered friends at CA are sweetening the pot. The first 200 industry types at the ballpark will also receive a free voucher for a beer and hot dog. That's right, media types buying you food and drink. (Usually works the other way around, but you knew that already – being in the industry and all.) Just show the box office your approved industry ID – business card, laminate, liner notes, station shirt – grab a brew, a dog and a seat and enjoy the great American pastime. Take in the game, too. (We were talking about talking. What did you think?)

OFF THE RECORD: LAUREN ALAINA

Lauren Alaina

19/Interscope/Mercury's Lauren Alaina puts an industry spin on the artist interview:

What station did you grow up listening to? WUSY/Chattanooga, TN.

Do you remember the first time you heard yourself on the radio? I was driving from Chattanooga to Nashville, listening to US 101 when I heard "Georgia Peaches." I started crying hysterically.

What is your go-to food stop? I'm terrible about wanting Waffle House after a show.

Sometimes, after everyone goes to sleep on the bus, my driver and I Google the nearest WH, stop and eat.

What radio station visit will you never forget? One time at WOGL/Pittsburgh, I had to do a quick "shower" in the station's bathroom, and they didn't actually have a shower. I sang for the station and stayed to judge one of their local Idol contests on the air. They also had me do a weather report. I had so much fun I didn't want to leave!

Which radio staffer made the biggest impression on you? I got to hang out with Anthony Allen. Now he's in Nashville. But when he was in Wichita, we went to an arcade after my show. We played mini-golf, raced go-carts and hit the batting cages. I had a blast!

Which regional is the most interesting driver? Bruce Shindler! He is the worst driver in the world! Ha, ha!

Have you ever wanted to buy anything in SkyMall? Yes! Somehow I convince myself that I need everything in that catalog.

What question do you never want to answer again? Are you and Scotty McCreery dating?

The number of songs an artist has on the radio obviously impacts the spin count. Chesney leads this category as well, with 100 tunes getting at least one spin this year. (Song counts include album cuts and the aberrant Christmas play received by a few stations airing holiday tunes during the August heat wave.) Toby is next at 74. Then, it gets interesting. ZBB ranks third on the list in spins, with play from just 33 songs. More amazing, Aldean is seventh in spins with only 22 songs. The rest of the Top 8 shows Shelton with 38 tunes, Urban 41, McGraw 74 and the Flatts at 69.

Rascal Flatts

Looking at the rest of the top 30 spin leaders, Taylor Swift is the first woman on the list, ranking – honest to God, I did not make this up or adjust in any way – No. 13! She's followed by Miranda Lambert and Carrie Underwood at Nos. 14 and 15, respectively. Amazingly, they are the only solo female artists in the Top 30, underscoring this format's dearth of female airplay. Their combined spins equal just 7% of all airplay. Adding the spins from female-voice acts Lady A, The Band Perry and Sugarland only takes you to 13% of the total spins. It's also interesting to note that Taylor, Miranda and Carrie each only have about half of Chesney's spin count.

A few caveats as you peruse the Top 30 Country total airplay artists' list. Remember, this is all airplay. Total airplay is affected by career length, which is reflected by the number of songs in each rotational category. Having single releases (or not) during this period also impacts the total spins. But even with those caveats, it's interesting to see that relative superstar newcomers ZBB, Blake Shelton and Jason Aldean are among the top 8, with Luke Bryan (9) and Lady Antebellum (10) in hot pursuit.

"An awesome cautionary tale about things being not what they seem. This is one GREAT country song!"

Scott Donato, OM, WGTY/York

"From the first note it made the hair on my arms stand up. This is a POWERFUL song that is amazingly written – one that we will be playing at country radio for years and years."

Jeff Kapugi - WUSN/Chicago

"Anyone who didn't discover Thomas on his first single now has two options: 1) Pray or 2) Drink heavily. Put this on, you can do both. This artist is the future and this is just the start."

Gregg Swedberg - KEEY/Minneapolis

"'Beer with Jesus' IS what country music is all about. If you don't like the song, then you just don't like country music!"

Johnny Chiang, OM, KKBQ-Houston

"One of the most moving songs I've heard in a long time. If it brought tears to two rough ol' dudes like me and Andy Woods, then I can't wait to see how our women respond to this when they hear it on WCOS."

LJ Smith - WCOS/Columbia

"INCREDIBLE song! Beautifully written, beautifully delivered, and packing an incredible message. One for the ages for sure!!"

Jeni Taylor - WPCV/Lakeland

"It may be the best song I have ever heard."

Nate Deaton - KRTY/San Jose

HIGH VALLEY

"Love You For A Long Time"

"We are very HIGH on High Valley. This is a song that other programmers will hopefully wake up to, and our call letters will hopefully open their ears to this fantastic trio. It's an add on WYCD!"
