Kenny and Garth and Eagles, Oh My...

Nashville's music machine cranked out three new buzz cuts this week. Hitting the airwaves just three weeks before the start of the fall book are Kenny Chesney's "Don't Blink" – the second single from his forthcoming album set for Sept. 11 release – Garth Brooks' "More Than A Memory" – the first single from The Ultimate Hits package that will be in stores on Nov. 6 – and The Eagles "How Long" – the first single from Long Road Out Of Eden due in stores on Oct. 30. Here's a look at the major impact these three made on Country radio.

KC's Eyes Wide Open: Kenny Chesney's "Don't Blink" exploded onto this week's chart at No. 25. His 70 adds trailed only the 76 Garth garnered. This ties KC for the highest-debating single of 2007 with Carrie Underwood's "So Small," which blasted to No. 25 on August 6. Since it's release at 6am on Aug. 20, Kenny's newest single has generated at least one play on 96 of our 121 reporters. Leading the way is KMPS/Seattle with 40 plays, KASE/Austin with 38, WWNU/Columbia SC with 31 and KFDI/Wichita and WBCT Grand Rapids at 30 spins. Another 22 stations have aired it more than 20 times while 19 others have generated between 10-19 plays.

Kenny Chesney

Eagles Soar Once More: Another story that catches the eye this week is the Eagles and their new single, "How Long." It debuts at No. 39. The last time the Eagles debuted on a Mediabase-generated Country chart was – well, never. I mean, the guys' last single on Country radio was "Lyn' Eyes" in 1975, and Mediabase has only been doing charts for nine years.

Michaels: A New Spin On Life

(CAT 8/6). "It's just easier to do everything from work," he says. "I got bored at home."

"Nobody knew I was coming back today, but I was floored by the number of people who took time out to send me a message or flowers or a card. Not just artists and managers, but competitors. I'm in an incredible mood: I got a mulligan on life! The shape of the car, the condition it was in, I shouldn't be alive. My face looks like someone hit me with mallet. It took 70 stitches to put my face back on!"

Like the true promotion man he is, Michaels didn't take long to focus on what's truly important in life. "Everyone at the

"Seriously, I'm just happy to be alive. When you go through an accident like that, you come back with an entirely different perspective of the job you have and people you work with. Plus, this was the only way to get the brand new 2008 Hummer H3. If it wasn't for this, I'd still be tooling around in a 2007. And I lost 26 pounds in three weeks. I should go on Oprah with my 'crash diet.' I'll take my mangled bumper and tell everyone all they have to do is run into a tree."

Raging Cajun Conundrum

What happened in Lafayette, LA last Thursday morning (8/24)? What sounded like a profanity-laced screaming match between Citadel KXKC morning jock Scott Daniels and producer DeLannie Langlinais, moderated by PD/morning co-host Casey Carter, has some folks buzzing. The incident, which seemed to culminate with Langlinais quitting on air, was even reported by local television station KLFY.

But questions abound. First, the incident appears to have aired with the expletives bleeped out. Secondly, Carter urges Daniels and Langlinais to take it off air, but never acts to actually take the station to music or a commercial. Also, Country Aircheck reported weeks ago that Langlinais, a former local Miss Fourth of July, was planning to leave the show to open her own dance studio (CAT 7/17).

So, was it an actual on-air meltdown? Was it a stunt? Was it a stunt that didn't go over as well as hoped? Citadel/Lafayette GM Mary Galyean had no comment, and attempts to reach Carter and Daniels were unsuccessful.

Judge for yourself by listening to the audio here: www.countryaircheck.com/mp3s/KXKC08242007.mp3.

The Eagles had 15 adds, including (with spins in the last week in parentheses) KYGO/Denver (21), KFRG/Riverside-San Bernardino (17), WYCD/Detroit (14), KMLE/Phoenix (11) and WQHK/Ft. Wayne (10). Other major markets to report adds today were KSON/San Diego, KSOP/Salt Lake City, WMIL/Milwaukee and WPAW/Greensboro.

The G-Man Cometh: Garth Brooks had 76 Country Aircheck adds this week, making "More Than A Memory" the third most-added single this year. More on that in a bit.

The true extent of Garth's first-day impact isn't fully depicted since neither Country Aircheck/Mediabase nor BDS/R&R receives reported adds from their entire respective reporting panels. To really get a feel, one must add the CA reported adds to those received by R&R.

Garth got 76 CA reported adds. He received another 14 adds reported to R&R by stations that do not report adds to CA/Mediabase. (Citadel does not report adds to CA/Mediabase; Clear Channel and Cumulus do not report adds to BDS/R&R. CBS Radio and Cox don't report adds to either trade.) So, of a possible 107 CA adds (121 reporters minus CBS' 13 and Cox's 1), Garth got a total of 90 adds.

Since the record was released at midnight ET Aug. 27, all of the adds were "reported adds" and there were no "auto adds." ("Auto adds" is a process both trades use to turn certain thresholds of airplay into "adds" for the stations that don't report adds.)

TUBE CHECK

Tuesday (8/28) – Travis Tritt, Today Show (NBC), Glenn Beck (CNN); Willie Nelson, Uncut: 60 Minutes Special (CMT); Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, Inside Fame (CMT).

Wednesday (8/29) – Eric Church, Master Series (GAC).

Thursday (8/30) – Kenny Chesney, Willie Nelson, The Late Show with David Letterman (CBS); Josh Gracin, Jennifer Hanson, Riverfront Concert (GAC).

Friday (8/31) – Jack Ingram, Miranda Lambert, Cross Country (CMT); Billy Ray Cyrus, Good Morning America (ABC); Darryl Worley, The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson (CBS); Big & Rich, Summerfest (CMT).

Saturday (9/1) – Carrie Underwood, Sugarland, Rodney Atkins, Craig Morgan, Grand Ole Opry Live (GAC); Josh Turner, Emeril Live (Food Network).

Sunday (9/2) – Connie Smith, Master Series (GAC).

Monday (9/3) – Sugarland, Summerfest (CMT); Johnny Cash, Uncut: 60 Minutes Special (CMT).

The most-added record this year is Carrie Underwood's "So Small," with 94 adds. Of those, 22 were auto adds. Next was Rascal Flatts' "Take Me There," which had 86 adds – 19 auto adds.

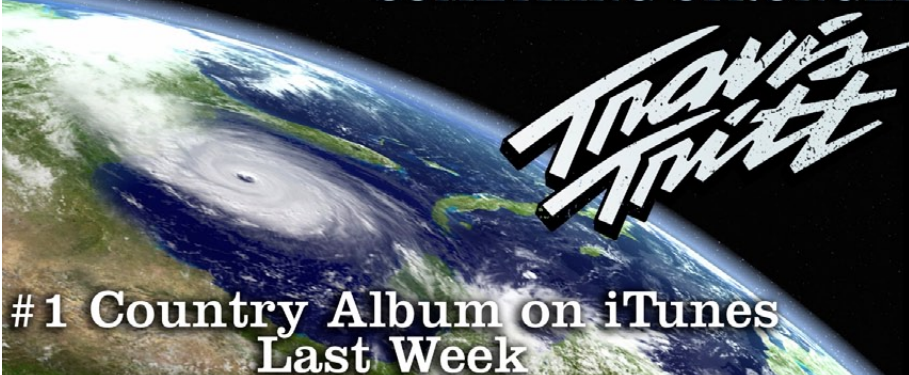

The Airplay Impact of Garth's first day is best viewed on Mediabase's "Real Time" feature. As of 8pm CT Monday night, Garth was Monday's most-played song with 937 spins. Rodney Atkins' "These Are My People" was next with 534 and Reba McEntire w/Kelly Clarkson was next with 497. On Mediabase's "Building Chart" that includes Sunday and Monday airplay, Garth ranks fourth – amazing considering the other songs had two days of airplay.

A number of stations jammed Garth into his own rotation category on Monday. Registering double-digit plays today were: WKKT/Charlotte, WQYK/Tampa and WTQR/Greensboro (20); KZSN/Wichita (19); KNIX/Phoenix (18); KKWF/Seattle,

This week's releases include:

Sarah Johns Big Love In A Small Town (BNA)

Johns, who hails from tiny Pollard, KY, made her break for Nashville with the encouragement of manager T.K. Kimbrell who saw her perform at a Lexington restaurant called The Regatta. She co-wrote every song on her debut, which was produced by Joe Scaife. Titles include "When Do I Get To Be A Woman," "Touch Me," "He Hates Me" and "It's Hard To Be A Girl (In A Young Man's World)."

KMPS/Seattle and KBQI/Boise (17); WSOC/Charlotte (16); KUSS/San Diego (15); WKHX/Atlanta, WCOS/Columbia, SC, WWGR/Ft. Myers, WDAF/Kansas City, WSIX/Nashville (14); and, another 23 stations aired it between 10-13 times today.

For the real number nerds among you, of the 31 stations that did not report Garth's new single as an add to either CA or R&R, 17 played it more than six times Monday, which would qualify as an "auto add." If you're still with me, that would give Garth 107 adds – 90 reported and 17 auto adds.

There were seven stations that had not played "More than A Memory" since the time it was released and our press cut-off time of 8pm CT: KKBQ/Houston, KMDL/Lafayette, LA, WCTO/Allentown, WGKX/Memphis, WPCV/Lakeland FL, WXBQ/Tri-Cities, TN-VA, and WYRK/Buffalo.

Garth Online

As fast as the Internet is, radio is still one step ahead when it comes to Garth's single. Streaming audio sites Rhapsody, Yahoo! Music, Pandora, MyStrands, and the like have not made the song available yet. Finding a legal download is impossible, of course, but those determined to get it illegally won't have an easy time, either ... at least not yet. Two sources are circulating the single on Limewire, but file traders can expect a very long wait for it at the moment. It's not available in the popular iPod file-searching site, Seeqpod, either, but availability online is only a matter of time. The first chance for "Memory" to make the Big Champagne top 5 Country traded-file list will be next Monday.

Regarding the public actually getting its hands on a physical copy, at least one promo CD copy is up for a three-day auction on eBay. At press time, it had attracted one bid at the starting price of $5. And one of the 200 digital press kits for The Ultimate Hits given out at the press conference is also up for bid on eBay, starting at $4.95, with no action.

Meanwhile, lyrics to "More Than A Memory" are widely available, mostly copied from a single source who posted them without being sure of a couple of lines, so a web search will bring up the same incomplete information almost everywhere.
