Gold Dependent On PD Background?

A funny thing happened on the way to checking out the Top 100 most-played Country radio Power Gold. I ran the PG list as normal, using Mediabase 24/7 for all CA/Mediabase reporting stations for the two-week period Aug. 23-Sept. 5, 2009. I figure with the start of the fall book just a couple weeks away, it's a great time to make sure your Power Gold list is polished to a high gloss.

MEDIABASE

After running that list, which appears on Page 6 of this CA Weekly, I decided to run the PG list using the Mediabase 24/7 Custom Report tool for both the "Country PD" and the "Pop-background Country PD" filter I've run in the past.

Background: In the April 13 CA Weekly (see CountryAircheck.com, archives), we ran a comparison of the current music lists from the two sets of programmers. The "Country PD" list consists of 20 veteran Country radio programmers. The "Pop PD" group is 18 current Country radio programmers who have come to the format for the first time in the last year or so.

To be honest, I really wasn't expecting to see much difference between the two lists. After all, aren't Power Gold categories constructed using results from recently conducted Auditorium Music Tests? (AMTs are still being done, right? Right? Okay, maybe not.) However, there are some major differences in the PG lists of the two groups.

Parr None: KKGQ/Los Angeles morning host Shawn Parr served as the voice of the Jerry Lewis MDA telethon this past weekend (9/6-7), rubbing elbows with everyone from Charro (l) to Wynonna (r).

Taylor Turns 10

According to Big Machine, Taylor Swift's worldwide album sales have surpassed 10 million units, and she's sold an additional 20 million paid song downloads. The label's breakdown:

Taylor Swift

Taylor Swift (2006)	4,369,749 (US)
Fearless (2008)	4,020,725 (US)
Taylor Swift & Fearless	1,297,059 (International)
Beautiful Eyes	256,822 (Wal-Mart only)
Holiday Collection	151,844

EASTON CORBIN

A Little More Country Than That

“Why wait when it’s a HIT!”

– Jim Murphy, VP of Country Programming, Dial Global

“There have been a handful of times that I’ve been extremely excited about a new act from the first time hearing and seeing them and then watching them turn into a big hit. I’ve just added Easton Corbin to that list. He’s got everything we need in Country music... let’s make him... no... watch him become...a huge star!”

– George King, OM/PD KAJA, San Antonio

MY TUNES: MUSIC THAT SHAPED MY LIFE

Chris Young

Chris Young discusses his most important songs, artists or concerts:

1. Keith Whitley, L.A. To Miami: This is the first record I really fell in love with and absolutely had to have a copy. Plus, it's Keith Whitley... 'nuff said.

2. Vince Gill, Starwood Amphitheatre: I saw Vince blow away a huge crowd using only his voice and guitar. He literally silenced several thousand people. I was a kid, and I remember thinking, "I hope one day I can be that good."

3. James Bonamy, What I Live To Do: "Brain In A Jar" was one of the first songs I ever sang at shows as a kid. He also lived in my hometown, Murfreesboro, TN, so he has to be a good guy, right?

4. Randy Travis, Trail Of Memories: The Randy Travis Anthology: I can't name just one Randy Travis song or album; he is one of my biggest influences. This collection has everything from "1982" to "He Walked On Water." Everyone should have a copy.

5. George Strait, Pure Country: The movie was fantastic, the songs are amazing, and my college professor Hal Newman wrote "Baby Your Baby."

• A highly regarded song or album you've never heard: I have heard Weezer's "Undone - The Sweater Song," but nothing else.

• An "important" piece of music you just don't get: Anything Polka. That's why it's not part of the Grammys anymore guys... come on.

• An album you played or listened to incessantly: Tracy Lawrence, Alibis. I wore that one out... still do.

• One obscure or non-country song everyone should listen to right now: "Not Meant To Be" by Theory Of A Deadman. Just a fantastic song.

The Miller Harris Foundation's 10th Annual Golf Tournament benefiting children with asthma will be held Sept. 14 at Nashville's Temple Hills. Call 615-242-2842 or email millerharris@comcast.net for details.

Formerly Kentucky-based bluegrass label Lonesome Day Records is expanding its Nashville operation and venturing into country. Chart Noise's Bob Morrison is consulting and serving as GM, LiveWire Entertainment's Alexis Kelly is handling sales & marketing, and Splash! PR's Vanessa Davis oversees

Gold Dependent On PD Background?

Among the more interesting disparities, Country PDs (CPDs) rank some songs much higher than their Pop-experienced counterparts (PPDs). CPD Power Gold rank is followed by the (PPD rank):

- Little Big Town's "Boondocks" 5 (26).
- Rascal Flatts' "Mayberry" 33 (54).
- Sugarland's "Baby Girl" 17 (42).
- Brooks & Dunn's "Red Dirt Road" 18 (141).
- Trace Adkins' "Honky Tonk Badonkadonk" 20 (65).
- Gretchen Wilson's "Redneck Woman" 25 (53).
- Rascal Flatts' "Mayberry" 33 (54) and "Fast Cars and Freedom" 43 (55).

golden
NASHVILLE

- Alan Jackson's "Where I Come From" 37 (75) and "Chattahoochie" 53 (87).
- Faith Hill's "The Way You Love Me" 38 (62).
- Kenny Chesney's "Summertime" 39 (58), "I Go Back" 36 (50), and "Living In Fast Forward" 58 (86).
- Keith Urban's "Who Wouldn't Wanna Be Me" 44 (94).
- Craig Morgan's "That's What I Like About Sunday" 46 (90).

On the reverse side of the ledger, here are songs that fared far better among PPDs than CPDs, with the PPD rank first and (CPD rank) following.

- Kenny Chesney with Uncle Kracker "When the Sun Goes Down" 6 (15) and "How Forever Feels" 13 (27).
- Mark Wills' "19 Somethin'" 12 (26).
- Phil Vassar's "Just Another Day In Paradise" 19 (28).
- Big & Rich's "Save A Horse (Ride A Cowboy)" 11 (34).
- Brooks & Dunn's "Ain't Nothing 'Bout You" 8 (35).
- George Strait's "Check Yes Or No" 32 (49).
- Tracy Byrd's "Ten Rounds With Jose Cuervo" 31 (52).
- Travis Tritt's "It's A Great Day To Be Alive" 22 (55).
- Diamond Rio's "Meet In The Middle" 23 (57).

Countering the notion that some of these differences might be arbitrary and/or random, it's interesting to note that there seems to be a definite bias when it comes to music from some of this format's biggest stars.

Three Montgomery Gentry tunes are in the CPD Top 60, but only one is in the PPD top 60. They are, with the CPD list rank before (PPD rank): "Hell Yeah" 10 (26), "Something To Be Proud Of" 32 (99), and, "My Town" 47 (82).

Six Toby Keith songs appear in the CPD top 60, three are in the PPD top 60. Here's the CPD top Toby songs, (PPD rank) follows: "As Good As I Once Was" 13 (36), "I Love This Bar" 30 (77), "I Wanna Talk About Me" 31 (83), "Beer For My Horses" 40 (57), and "Courtesy of the Red, White and Blue" 60 (114).

Interestingly, Keith's "How Do You Like Me Now" ranks No. 48 with CPDs and No. 37 with PPDs, while his "Should've Been A Cowboy" ranks No. 48 with PPDs and No. 78 with with CPDs.

Album release info to news@countryaircheck.com.

Just as perplexing is Tim McGraw, who places six tunes on the CPD top 60. They are (PPD rank): "Where The Green Grass Grows" 1 (17), "My Next 30 Years" 8 (21), "I Like It, I Love It" 19 (35), "Live Like You Were Dying" 51 (72), and "Real Good Man" 54 (151). In more accord is "Something Like That" 3 (5).

Definitive conclusions from this admittedly unscientific study are hard to draw. But, like the current music comparisons done last April, it sure looks like there's a marked difference when it comes to the hits these two groups lean towards when compiling their respective PG libraries. We'd sure be interested in knowing your take on these seeming disparities.

Steel Magnolia
KEEP ON LOVIN' YOU

IMPACTING NEXT MONDAY 9-14

Click here to watch their new music video currently spinning on CMT in heavy rotation!!!

"True story: first time I heard Steel Magnolia play I asked them to please not go to a foreign country and say something derogatory about the President of the United States. Not that I thought they sounded like the Chicks, but they are going to be just that big and matter that much to this format!"

-Julie Stevens, PD, KRTY-San Jose
